

Supply Chain Optimization & Supplier Matching

Strengthening North Carolina Manufacturing. Building America's Supply Chain.

Today's manufacturers need resilient, reliable domestic supply chains to remain competitive. Whether you're looking to replace overseas suppliers, source components closer to home, or expand your customer base, NC State University Industry Extension Services (IES) provides the expertise and connections to help.

Find a Supplier

Finding the right supplier doesn't have to be difficult. Our supply chain specialists research your sourcing needs and connect you with qualified manufacturers—starting in North Carolina and expanding nationwide. Start by submitting a Supply Request Form: ncstateies.com/supplyrequest. There is no cost for North Carolina manufacturers to use this service.

A National Network Working for North Carolina Manufacturers

Industry Extension Services is part of the Manufacturing Extension Partnership (MEP) National Network, a program of the National Institute of Standards and Technology (NIST) within the U.S. Department of Commerce.

Through this nationwide network, we can search beyond North Carolina when needed—working with MEP Centers in all 50 states to identify qualified domestic suppliers and support reshoring initiatives.

This program supports the federal goal of strengthening America's manufacturing supply chains through the Build America, Buy America initiative and broader efforts to expand domestic manufacturing capacity.

Why Partner with Industry Extension Services?:

- No-cost supplier matching for North Carolina manufacturers
- Dedicated supply chain specialists
- Access to North Carolina and nationwide supplier networks
- Connections through the NIST MEP National Network
- Support for reshoring and onshoring initiatives
- Resources that strengthen the Defense Industrial Base
- Manufacturing expertise backed by NC State University
- Objective, confidential assistance

Find a Supplier. Become a Supplier. Strengthen America's Supply Chain.

Whether you're searching for a supplier or looking for your next customer, Industry Extension Services can help you build stronger domestic supply chain connections.
